The Rosewood Guest House is a marvellous orchestration of a cast of superlatives. Beautiful gardens, sumptuous breakfasts and elegantly appointed guest rooms all evidence a great attention to detail that has seen Rosewood garner numerous awards.

There are five ensuite guest rooms to choose from, each with space to relax and marvellous garden vignettes. Strategically placed birdbaths attract wildlife and splashes of colour change with the seasons. There is also the option of the spa suite with master bedroom, lounge and kitchenette, which is ideal for guests travelling in a three or foursome wanting extra space.

All guests share the enjoyment of a lounge and dining room, where a legendary full breakfast is served. The covered deck overlooking the garden is the perfect place for basking in the morning sun over the morning paper or drinks before wandering to one of Margaret River townships' many dining options. Hosts Jane and Keith Purdie pride themselves on ensuring each guest obtains the most from their visit to the region: their wealth of knowledge can steer you toward the very best based upon your interests.
